

Clean50 Intern ♦ Delta Management Arielle Navarra

Organizations

- Delta Management Group is a boutique search firm with a leading practice in clean tech, corporate social responsibility and sustainability professionals.

Delta Management & The Clean50 Organization is based at the LEED Platinum Evergreen Brickworks in Toronto

- In 2011, Delta Management founded the Clean50 Awards with the support of Corporate Knights Magazine
- The Clean50 Awards recognize outstanding contributions to 'clean capitalism' and sustainability
- 16 categories of industries, government, academia, thought leaders and advocates.

Premier Ministre du Québec, Philippe Couillard, accepting Clean16 Public Sector Award

2016 Clean50 recipients at the Clean50 Summit on Toronto Island

Gavin Pitchford, executive director of Delta Management, presenting awards

Kathleen Wynne, Premier of Ontario, accepting Clean16 Public Sector Award

Chris Ragan, Ecofiscal Commission and Susan McGeachie, Ernst & Young

Frances Edmonds, HP, facilitating at Clean50 Summit

Clean50 Summit working groups

Memorable Moments

Key Contributions

- Research: Buildings, Cities, Clean Tech, Education & Thought Leaders, Manufacturing & Transportation, Public Sector, Renewable Energy, Tech & Telecom categories
- Communication: Engaged with hundreds of nominees in French and English
- Writing: Website and magazine content
- Decision-Making: Interviewed and selected Assistant Facilitators for Summit
- Critical Thinking: Advocated for top selections to Delta team
- Event Coordination: Ensured Clean50 Summit ran smoothly

Key Takeaways

- 1) Sustainability can be embedded within any sector
- 1) Individual leaders make the real difference
- 1) Removing leaders from their silos to discuss sustainability issues is crucial