FAH101 Writing Module Paraphrasing/Summarizing Quiz

Please read the introduction (two paragraphs) to Woods' discussion, then do the following things in the space provided (full sentences only, please):

 Using the following sentence as a starting point, provide a paraphrase of the first two paragraphs (including short quotes if you like): "We now turn to Woods, who takes an interesting and fruitful approach to the question of the artist's status through history. She argues that ..."

 Using the following sentence as a starting point, provide a summary of the first two paragraphs: "The status of artists in pre-modern periods has been discussed at length by many authors. While Stevenson argues that artists have been of low status throughout history, Woods takes a more nuanced view. She argues that ..."

Bonus question:

3) List the evidence that Woods provides for her conclusions (and don't overlook her footnotes!).