

Company Profile

The Delphi Group is a Canadian strategy consulting firm that specializes in providing innovative solutions in the areas of climate change and corporate sustainability.

With offices in Vancouver, Calgary, Toronto, and Ottawa, it provides professional consulting services to medium-to-large organizations in a variety of industry sectors.

Consulting Areas of Expertise

Cleantech & Innovation

Corporate Sustainability

Green Economy

Climate Change

Responsibilities and Projects

Responsibilities:

- Provided project support to company consultants; assisted with project-related research & analysis, writing, and data/information collection.
- Assisting with ad-hoc research requests relating to: sustainability initiatives, industry best practices, and policy trends/developments.

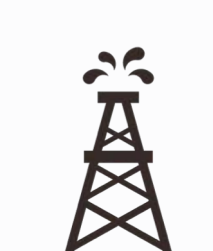

Projects:

- Energy Sector Sustainability Study
 - Client(s): Multiple Oil & Gas and Energy Generation Clients
 - Role: Benchmarked performance of largest Canadian and international energy companies on roughly 100 different financial and non-financial indicators.
- Carbon Pricing Cost Estimates
 - Client(s): Large Commercial Real Estate Client
 - Role: Collected and summarized forecasted cost of carbon (CoC) estimates for client's property portfolio using an internally-developed carbon cost model.

Key Client Sectors and Industries

Government Services

Oil & Gas

Pharmaceuticals & Chemicals

Telecommunications

Consumer Retail

Banking & Finance

Mining & Forestry

Manufacturing & Engineering

Commercial Real Estate

Transportation & Supply Chain

Educational Institutions

Energy Generation & Transportation

Skills and Insights Gained

Skills Gained:

- Ability to work with specific reporting frameworks related to corporate/organizational sustainability; specific experience with:
 - Global Reporting Initiative (GRI)
 - Carbon Disclosure Project (CDP)
 - Taskforce for Climate-related Financial Disclosure (TCFD)
- Analytical skills relating to performing and understanding greenhouse gas (GHG) inventories.

Insights Gained:

- Practical exposure to the professional consulting services sector; understanding of business development, project management, and client relationship management.
- Strong understanding of the energy sector operations and reporting.
 - Familiarity with:
 - Corporate disclosure and areas of priority
 - Environmental and social impacts of operations