PREPARING FOR CLASS
PHASE 5 ☑

REMINDERS

Activate Your UTORid and U of T Email Address

If you haven't already done so, activate your UTORid and set-up your U of T email address. Students who have accepted their offer can begin the process right away. Please visit the UTM UTORid/TCard Services Information article for details and instructions for Getting Your UTORid.

Pick-up Your T-Card

Visit the UTM TCard Services office to pick-up your TCard (no appointment necessary!). For office hours and location visit utm.utoronto.ca/iits/

STUDENT ESSENTIALS

Register for UT Alert

Register for alerts about campus closures and emergency updates at alert.utoronto.ca.

Download Office 365, Free of Charge

Download your free copy of Office 365 ProPlus (including Word, Excel, PowerPoint) at uoft.me/ns-tools.

Check if your Your Course Syllabus is Available

Before classes begin, check if your syllabus is available! This document includes course information, your instructor's contact info, the course materials, and more. Your syllabus may be posted before classes start on the Timetable Builder and/or Quercus.

Purchase Textbooks and Course Materials

Check your syllabi for which materials are required for each course. Then, visit the U of T Bookstore at www.uoftbookstore.com or in person at UTM to rent or buy your textbooks.

Look-up Your Class Locations

For classes on campus, find your class locations prior to the first day of classes. Access maps and resources can be found on our UTM Visitors page.

ORIENTATION

Get Ready for Orientation

Get ready for UTM Orientation from August 30 - September 7, 2024! UTM Orientation is a program to welcome you to the UTM community and prepare you for the year ahead! From social events to learning more about navigating the campus, from connecting with your academic departments to learning how to access services and supports, UTM Orientation is here to get you ready for your university journey. Check out what's being offered and build your schedule at www.utm.utoronto.ca/orientation/

Welcome to UTM!
