

DIASPORA & TRANSNATIONAL STUDIES (HBA)

Department of Historical Studies

Where is home? Need it be in one place? Is it always attached to territory? Diaspora and Transnational Studies examines the historical and contemporary movements of peoples and the complex problems of identity and experience to which these movements give rise, as well as the creative possibilities that flow from movement. The program is comparative and interdisciplinary, drawing from the social sciences, history, religion and the arts.

The program offers a wide selection of courses, giving students the opportunity to learn about a range of diasporic communities, as well as key debates in the field.

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR TIME AT UTM!

We want to help you maximize your university experience, so we've pulled together information and interesting suggestions to get you started, although there are many more! As you review the chart on the inside pages, note that many of the suggestions need not be restricted to the year they are mentioned. In fact, activities such as joining an academic society, engaging with faculty and seeking opportunities to gain experience should occur in each year of your study at UTM. Read through the chart and create your own plan using My Program Plan found at www.utm.utoronto.ca/program-plans

DIASPORA & TRANSNATIONAL STUDIES

Skills developed in Diaspora & Transnational Studies

To be competitive in the job market, it is essential that you can explain your skills to an employer. Visit the Career Centre to learn how to articulate and market the following skills:

Interpersonal & communication: develop sensitivity to different viewpoints and ideas; communicate across cultures and languages; and mediate and negotiate conflict.

Adaptability: understand global social problems; understand issues in migration and diaspora; and recognize and adapt to cultural similarities and differences.

Research & analytical: synthesize large amounts of information; logically interpret raw data and research findings; and analyze policy and proposals.

Problem-solving: make decisions about social and political issues, as well as conceptualize and implement long term projects.

Get involved

Check out the 100+ student organizations on campus. Here are a few:

- Historical Studies Society (HSS)

FUTURE STUDENTS

Admission to UTM

All program areas require an Ontario Secondary School Diploma, or equivalent, with six Grade 12 U/M courses, or equivalent, including English. The admission average is calculated with English plus the next best five courses. The approximate average required for admission is mid- to high-70s. More information is available at utm.utoronto.ca/viewbook.

NOTE: During the application process, applicants will select the Humanities admissions category, but will not officially be admitted to a formal program of study (Specialist, Major, and/or Minor) until after first year.

Sneak Peek

What does diaspora mean? Get introduced to the field in DTS201H5. You'll learn about diaspora in relation to questions of history, globalization, cultural production and the creative imagination. Material is drawn from Toronto as well as from diasporic communities in other times and places.

With the critical analytical skills, cultural sensitivity and broader outlook of life acquired in the program, graduates thrive in government ministries and offices (e.g. public policy, foreign ministry, citizenship and immigration, social services, labour), human rights, media industry, non-governmental organizations (NGOs), teaching and other fields.
