

SOUTH ASIAN HUMANITIES

Department of Historical Studies

South Asian Humanities offers a comprehensive exploration of South Asia and the South Asian diaspora (South Asian peoples and cultures around the world). It draws on a range of disciplinary approaches. Through diverse course offerings, students can study South Asian history, religion, politics, languages, societies, and cultures. The program is geared toward building an engagement with the South Asian region as well as with South Asian diasporic contexts. Students may take courses in several departments that focus on South Asia. As a complement to the students' other chosen programs, the Minor in South Asian Humanities can prepare students for careers in a competitive global context in which South Asia plays an important role.

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR TIME AT UTM!

We want to help you make the most of your university experience, so we've pulled together information and interesting suggestions to get you started, although there are many more! As you review the chart on the inside pages, note that many of the suggestions need not be restricted to the year they are mentioned. In fact, activities such as joining an academic society, engaging with faculty and seeking opportunities to gain experience should occur in each year of your study at UTM. Read through the chart and create your own plan using My Program Plan found at www.utm.utoronto.ca/program-plans

Skills developed in South Asian Humanities

To be competitive in the job market, it is essential that you can explain your skills to an employer. Visit the Career Centre to learn how to articulate and market the following skills:

Communication: speak and write clearly and persuasively; formulate and defend an informed opinion; adapt to new cultural settings.

Research: find and select good sources of information; develop attention to detail; evaluate ideas and opinions; analyze complex systems; understand how historical forces have shaped people and their environments.

Problem-solving: think critically; make decisions based on evidence and reason; take multiple perspectives on complex issues.

Organizational: complete complex tasks; learn independently; collaborate in teams; take the lead.

Get involved

Check out the 100+ student organizations and conferences on campus. Here are a few:

FUTURE STUDENTS

Admission to UTM

All program areas require an Ontario Secondary School Diploma, or equivalent, with six Grade 12 U/M courses, or equivalent, including English. The admission average is calculated with English plus the next best five courses. The approximate average required for admission is mid- to high-70s. More information is available at in the Viewbook.

NOTE: During the application process, applicants will select the Humanities admissions category, but will not officially be admitted to a formal program of study (Specialist, Major, and/or Minor) until after first year.

Sneak Peek

How do we approach the extraordinary diversity of South Asian religious history? In RLG205H5, students will explore key terms cutting across religious traditions: sacrifice, worship, ritual, practice, duty, scripture, canon, and doctrine. This course presupposes no prior knowledge about South Asia.
