

WOMEN, GENDER & SEXUALITY STUDIES (HBA)

Department of Historical Studies

Relations of gender affect every aspect of society. Women, Gender and Sexuality Studies (WGSS) provides a rich and complex understanding of the range of socially-informed gendered experiences. The program seeks to foster feminist interdisciplinary and intersectional teaching, learning and research on gender worldwide by reaching across epistemological, analytical, and theoretical divisions. Our program fosters innovative teaching and cutting-edge research by focusing on the formation of gender and its intersections with other relations of power, such as class, race, culture, ethnicity, religion, ability, age, sexuality, and nationality. WGS is interdisciplinary and transnational in its scope, breadth, and depth. We offer courses that explore people's historical lives and contemporary gendered experiences from around the world and across cultures.

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR TIME AT UTM!

We want to help you maximize your university experience, so we have provided information and interesting suggestions to get you started, although there are many more! As you review the chart on the inside pages, note that many of the suggestions need not be restricted to the year they are mentioned. In fact, activities such as joining an academic society, engaging with faculty and seeking opportunities to gain experience should occur in each year of your study at UTM. Read through the chart and create your own plan using My Program Plan found at www.utm.utoronto.ca/program-plans

WOMEN, GENDER & SEXUALITY STUDIES

Skills developed in Women, Gender & Sexuality Studies

To be competitive in the job market, it is essential that you can explain your skills to an employer. Visit the Career Centre to learn how to articulate and market the following skills:

Communication: formulate and defend positions; write detailed research papers and summarize concepts and ideas; read and think critically; use unfamiliar materials and generate new ideas; and read and analyze texts.

Research: evaluate ideas and research; gather information and data; and interpret research and data.

Critical thinking & problem-solving: analyze and synthesize; recognize assumptions and make inferences; and create research designs.

Organizational & Leadership: understand difference and discover the intersections between racism, homophobia, sexism, classicism, and other forms of oppression; and develop the ability to assess needs.

FUTURE STUDENTS

Admission to UTM

All program areas require an Ontario Secondary School Diploma, or equivalent, with six Grade 12 U/M courses, or equivalent, including English. The admission average is calculated with English plus the next best five courses. The approximate average required for admission is mid- to high-70s. More information is available at utm.utoronto.ca/viewbook.

NOTE: During the application process, applicants will select the Humanities admissions category, but will not officially be admitted to a formal program of study (Specialist, Major, and/or Minor) until after first year.

Sneak Peek

What role can public policy play in overcoming gender inequalities? Take a look in WGS215H5. You'll investigate key historical and contemporary changes in public policies affecting Canadian women in such areas as education, sexuality, immigration and global issues. How is Black Feminist Performance read, interpreted, and experienced in popular culture and daily life? Find out in WGS415H5.
