Section F: Evaluation of Nominee

This award aims to recognize new-to-UTM students who have demonstrated a commitment to involvement and aspire to improve and contribute to the UTM campus community. Applicants will be evaluated based on four criteria:

- Depth (how significant your contribution is) and breadth (how widespread, collaborative, and/or replicable your contribution is) of campus involvement to a typical first-year UTM Student
- Evidence supporting the applicant's leadership development as a result of their involvement
- supporting how this applicant has grown in their understanding of UTM values, campus culture, and general campus knowledge as a result of their involvement
- Commitment to fostering a more respectful and inclusive campus environment.
